

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 149

January 14, 2021

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires local education agencies (LEAs) and charter schools to provide instruction to all public school students in kindergarten through grade 12 (K-12) on the events of September 11, 2001. Encourages the use of certain instructional criteria and repeals the legislation on July 1, 2025.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- The events of September 11, 2001 are currently taught in the 11th grade as a part of the Tennessee Academic Standards for Social Studies.
- DOE, LEAs, and charter schools will be able to comply with the proposed legislation using widely available and free resources related to the events of September 11, 2001.
- DOE, LEAs, and charter schools will be able to amend their policies in accordance with the provisions of this legislation during the normal course of business; therefore, any fiscal impact is estimated to be not significant.
- No significant impact to state or local operations.
- No impact to the BEP funding formula.
